We call the attention of all parties who are in arrears with the News to send in the amount due as we hope to make some valuable improvements.

Our press got out of repair last Friday while the outside of our paper was being worked off. Through the courtesy of the Spectator the edition was finished at that office. Thanks.

I have just returned from market with a new stock of goods, purchased for cash. Anything you want you can get at a low price. Come and see me.

W. L. WALKER.

Monday was a great day for the theater of our county. The last day of grace was up—the present coming the next day to the man who failed to pay for the 10th of November. So full $1500 was passed over the counter and the receipts handed out.

The Ladies' High School building is a most complete, and we have borrowed $200 to pay the amount due to us. This debt will be paid and must be paid. Those who have suggested and have not paid to fund the same at once, so that we can close the school.

N. M. Tark, Treasurer.

A daughter of Mr. Silas Owsen, who was a saleswoman from town, died last Friday morning and was buried Saturday. She was quite young, receiving the last rites of the church. The sympathy for her family is extended to the surviving members of the family.

Mr. C. H. Southard of this county, has proven himself a good guesser. In the Gradyville-Jackson contest on the 10th of last week, he carried several of the towns in the race for Governor. He was only off $323.33. He will receive a check this week.

Mrs. W. H. Wilson entertained Mrs. J. H. Jones, Mrs. B. W. Ford and Misses John E. Baker and Edna Bradshaw at dinner on Thanksgiving. A most delightful dinner was served, very much enjoyed by all present.

Rev. W. E. Adams preached a strong sermon last Sunday night on "The Unity of the Church." He followed up the sermon at night and endeavored to show that all sectarians are should be discarded and all churches should have one name, "The Church of Christ."

Mr. Gainer Turner, a young man about grown, a son of Mr. Wm. Turner, met a horrible death one day last week. He was driving from and was crushed to death. He was a very industrious young man and his death was a serious loss to his parents.

Mr. J. T. Borne, Jr., of this place, and Miss Cora Williams, of Campbellville, were quietly married at Camp Valley last Sunday night. Rev. W. D. Jones officiating. The couple were wedded in Columbia. Tom has many friends in Columbia, who are anxious to see him in the hands of Cora Williams, of Campbellville.

Married the 25th ult., Philip Pickett, a prop-nut-farmer of Adair county, to Miss Cora Gilpin, a handsome young lady of Louisville. After the ceremony the couple and a host of friends returned to the home of the bride where a beautiful supper awaited them. The wedding party was very large and the celebration was a most successful one. The bride is the wife of the writer.

Mr. N. N. Tark told the terrible story of his business wreck to Mr. M. C. Owsen and O. S. Harris for $1000.00 on Monday Mr. W. D. Jones, brother of the deceased, gave a story for $1000.00. Mr. Craven will remove his goods to the room formerly occupied by Mr. S. J. Montgomery last night last Thursday.

Last Saturday, in the Green circuit court, a bill for breach of promise was filed by Miss E. E. Christie, was dismissed on motion of the Commonwealth. There have been two trials, the jury failing to agree both times. It was the general opinion that Dr. Decker could not be convicted, hence the action of the Commonwealth.

Mr. W. S. Knight, of Jamestown, Deputy Collector of the Second Revenue District, met with a very painful accident last Saturday. He was on his way from his home to this place, and when in three miles of town he discovered a wagon coming in his direction. He, of course, supposed a driver was with the team until his horse collided with the wagon, the driver being behind. Some of Mr. Knight's horse was upset and he was thrown to the ground, spraining his arm. His leg was considerably damaged.

Last Monday Mr. R. M. Hurt brought to his brother, Mr. Rollin Hurt, of this city, a robe one hundred years old. It was a robe made by his father fifty-one hundred years ago and was used by the maker as a robe to take his body in away back of the robe that now prohibits the making of imitating robes without government of prescription and license.

It is about the same shape and size of an ordinary robe, but it is made of bottom and three silver bands as described in as good condition as when made and has been kept as a family relic in Columbia. It is now in the hands of Mr. Rollin Hurt who has long desired to possess it, but, however, to put it in the hands of his brother as a memento of his father.

The ladies of the Baptist Church and especially Mrs. W. B. Bradshaw, who has charge of the music, should be highly complimented over the success of their entertainment given at the court house. Thanksgiving evening. Perhaps four hundred people heard the exercises, every body being particularly delighted. The music was high-class and the singing was by no means to be despised. Two much praise can be given Miss Mary Dixon and Miss Allen Alexander, of Gradyville, who assisted in the entertainment. They are talented and accomplished young ladies, and upon this occasion they played most beautifully.

SUNDAY SCHOOL INSTITUTE.

The railroad, recognizing the importance of the Pastor's Sunday School Institute to be held in Louisville, December 12-15, have granted a rate of one fare plus 25 cents for the round trip. All pastors will be entertained, provided their names are sent in by December 10. It is suggested that Sunday Schools send their pastor and pay his way. Considering the magnificent program and splendid array of talent, this ought to bring lots of ministers to Louisville. Eighteen ten of the finest religious educators of America, including International workers, college presidents, Theological Seminary presidents, and others will take part in the program.

While this is specifically a Pastors' Institute, all Sunday School workers of every class are expected. Board can be secured at reasonable rates.

For program and other information, address E. A. Fox, of Louisville Trust Bldg., Louisville, Ky.

I can give you a bargain in overcoats, suits, shoes, boots, and can supply your needs in furniture. See my stock and get my prices.
